1. Martin Sondergeld was almost 33 when he left Germany in 1855, as one of the youngest in his family. He came with his wife, they had three children in Lorain, OH where she died in childbirth. He remarried for a short time, divorced.
2. Martin married Barbara Hagemann who at age 28 came from Germany in 1862 and married Martin, who was then age 44.
3. Johann Louis left Germany in 1852 with his family when he was 18.
4. His eventual wife, Dorothea Corz, arrived a year later from Germany in 1853.
5. Gottfried Kinsel, at age 38, and his wife Mathilda Draeger, at age 32, and their six children came from Prussia (now Poland) to Ohio in 1872.
6. Mathilda Draeger (see above)
7. Godfrey Sutter, arrived about age 10 with his family from Switzerland in 1839. He became a Lutheran minister in 1863.
8. Mary Reif, was about 3 years old when she came to Ohio from Germany in 1849 with her family.

Ten of the fourteen are buried in Elliston, Ohio and four are buried a few miles away in Oak Harbor, Ohio. Of the seven males, 4 were probably farmers and 1 was a minister.
